SUN BEAMS BRIGHTLY ON CITY AS VICTORIANS ENJOY FIRST HOLIDAY OF SUMMER SEASON

Street Cars, Autos, Stages and up-Island Lines Carry Thousands to Country and Beaches in Ideal Picnic Weather; Baseball and Gymkhana Appeal to Sportsmen; Citizens' Frolic Winds up Four Days of Fun.

The only thing necessary to make the May holiday that heralds the opening of the Summer season in Victoria a success was supplied to-day. That was a beaming smile from old King Sol. In the early morning it was a trifle doubtful if the sun's rays would break through with their genial blessings on the holiday crowds but before 10 o'clock a perfect Summer's day was assured and by that time street cars and automobiles were taking on crowds of parents and children in gay Summer attire bound for the beaches and other picnic fields. Stories of a change of weather bringing snow and ice to Eastern towns were almost beyond comprehension of Victoria people holidaying by the sea shore.

SHOT WAS FIRED AT JAPANESE ARMY LEADER

Attempt Made on Life of Gen. Fukuda in Restaurant; Assailant Escaped

Officer Commanded Tokio District During Martial Law After Earthquake

Tokio, May 25.—The vernacular press printed special dispatches yesterday saying another attempt had been made to assassinate General Masataro Fukuda, commander of the Tokio district during the martial law period following the earthquake and fire of 1923. The new attempt, the dispatches said, was made Saturday night when the general was dining in a restaurant in Yokohama. A bullet was fired through a window but went wild. The assailant escaped.

It is believed the attempt was in retaliation for the slaying of the Socialist leader Sakaye Sugi shortly after the earthquake.

Sakaye Sugi, a radical, and his wife and child, were strangled to death by Capt. Masahiko Amakasu, police officer, on September 16, 1922. He declared the murders a menace to peace.

WEMBLEY SERVICE ON EMPIRE DAY

King and Queen Attended Thanksgiving Event; Throng of 80,000 People

Service Conducted by Two Archbishops and Bishop of London

London, May 25.—Local subjects to the number of 80,000 gathered in the Wembley Stadium and greeted the King and Queen and celebrated a solemn Thanksgiving service on the occasion of Empire Day. The ceremony was impressive. The Duke and Duchess of York, Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles were among the other members of the royal family present, together with several Cabinet Ministers and Field Marshal Earl Haig.

The Archbishop of Canterbury and York and the Bishop of London conducted the service.

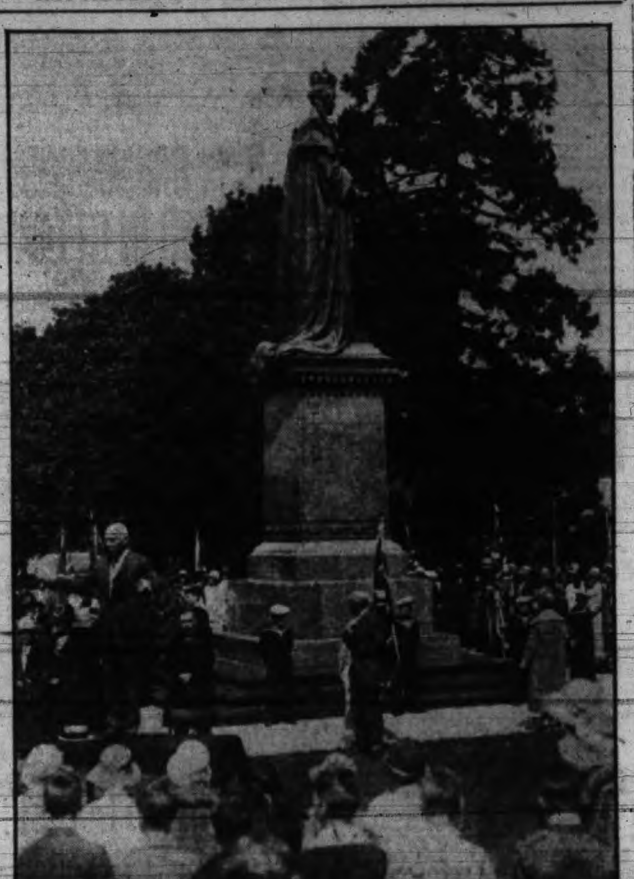

Another noteworthy Empire Day celebration was a demonstration of 5,000 British Fascists in Hyde Park wearing the black and silver badges of the society. Speeches urging the necessity of countering the growth of Communism were followed by a march through Piccadilly and Pall Mall.

IMPRESSIVE SCENE AT VICTORIA STATUE

Thousands of people gathered around the statue of Queen Victoria yesterday morning for the annual observance of the birthday of the Empress.

THOUSANDS ATTENDED I.O.D.E. PATRIOTIC SERVICE SUNDAY

Impressive Ceremony Around Queen Victoria's Statue; 1,000 Schoolchildren Took Part

Beneath a canopy sky of midsummer blue, with the beauty of the gardens to lend charm to the setting, and the stately pile of the Parliament Buildings making a background of striking dignity, the patriotic service commemorative of the birthday of Queen Victoria was held in Parliament Square yesterday morning, under the auspices of the Municipal Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire. Thousands of Victorians were attracted to the scene and with over 1,000 school children took part in the impressive ceremony, which is one of the outstanding features of the annual observance of this Empire holiday.

Shortly after 9 a.m. the school children, to the number of exactly one thousand and eighty, marched down the main thoroughfare, with their teachers, and took up their places in the grassy amphitheatre before the statue of Victoria, the Good.

Many of the children bore tiny bouquets, destined to be laid on the plinth of the statue in remembrance of a great Queen. There also came the smartly turned out band of the Sea Cadets, a company of Girl Guides and, finally, the standard bearers of the various primary chapters of the I.O.D.E., the standards making a

Fourists Would Welcome Opportunity For Business, Advocates Believe

City Should Cater to Guests Here For Big Event, is Argued

Powerful arguments for advancement of the grand parade and demonstration feature of the Crystal Garden Carnival to the commencement of the festivities, in place of a concluding event, are winning strong support. There is every possibility that the tentative arrangements will be changed, and the carnival parade advanced from Wednesday, July 1, Dominion Day, to Saturday, June 27.

Mayor Carl Pendry is a warm advocate of holding the carnival parade at the opening of the celebrations, pointing out that the carnival is primarily an occasion when the citizens of Victoria will be hosts to holiday-making visitors.

In the opinion of the Mayor, the thousands of visitors expected should see the city in full business attire, and the holding of the big parade on Saturday, June 27, the first day of the carnival, would give opportunity to serve the city's guests.

The earthquake came very suddenly. The residents, panic-stricken, tried to escape to the open, but many were pinned down by falling debris and died in the flames which quickly spread after the shock.

In Toyo-Oka also a number of persons were pinned down by falling debris, and, finally, the standard bearers of the various primary chapters of the I.O.D.E., the standards making a

SPITZBERGEN MEN OF POLAR PARTY REPORT WEATHER NOW CLOUDY AND MERCURY LOWER

Up Till 11.15 a.m. Victoria Time To-day no Word Had Come From Roald Amundsen and His Daring Companions Who Left Spitzbergen for North Pole Last Thursday; Depression Among Men Waiting at Spitzbergen Reported.

New York, May 25.—Up to 2.15 o'clock this afternoon (11.15 a.m. Victoria time) the North American Newspaper Alliance here had received no word from the Amundsen-Ellsworth seaplanes since their departure last Thursday afternoon from King's Bay, Spitzbergen, for a flight to the North Pole. This was announced at that hour through the Associated Press by Loring Pickering, general manager of the Alliance.

Oslo, Norway, May 25.—A dispatch from Spitzbergen to The Shipping Gazette said no news had been received regarding the Amundsen Polar flight expedition up to 2 o'clock this morning.

The dispatch read: "As late as 2 a.m. to-day there was no news of Amundsen. The hobby—one of the expedition's seaplanes—has returned to Weimann Bay, having patrolled north and east of Amundsen's last position. The ice conditions are difficult."

DEPRESSION REPORTED

The dispatch added that "among members of the expedition a certain amount of depression prevailed because of Amundsen's non-appearance. If their flying boats were damaged the members of the expedition will have a long and dangerous return journey."

"The weather is now cloudy, with a raw temperature, which has dropped to below zero," said the dispatch. "From the top of Amundsen's last position and the captain of the Fram saw open water to the northward—where the machines might have descended."

GERMANY WILLING TO BAR POISON GAS IN WAR, NATIONS ARE TOLD

Geneva, May 25.—Germany announced to-day she was ready to participate in any international conference agreement for the complete suppression of the use of chemicals and poison gas in warfare.

The announcement was made by Herr von Eckhardt at a meeting of the military and naval committee of the International Conference for Control of Traffic in Arms, which is considering the United States proposal for insertion in the proposed convention of a clause prohibiting the use of poison gas.

The committee in discussing the United States proposal is meeting with difficulties in view of the fact that the subject of poison gas is not on the programme of the conference.

"Germany is solemnly desirous of eliminating the use of chemicals in warfare and will join an international conference for that purpose," Herr von Eckhardt, stating he wished to make a "solemn declaration" to the meeting, said.

JUMPED FROM SHIP AND WAS RESCUED

Young Woman Failed to End Life Between Seattle and Tacoma

Tacoma, May 25.—Fate intervened last night to save the life of a young woman who jumped from the Seattle-Tacoma passenger steamer Tacoma on her last trip of the day from Seattle. Apparently stunned for a time from striking the water and buoyed up by air caught under her heavy clothing, she remained afloat until the boat's rescue crew picked her up.

The young woman, about thirty years of age, described as cooly and refined, refused to give Captain E. B. Coffin of the Tacoma her name or home address. She stated, however, that Tacoma was not her home.

She was taken in charge by a Tacoma woman on board the vessel and taken to the latter's home.

Man Wounded in Vancouver; Man Now Hunted by Police

Vancouver, May 25.—Found prostrate on the sidewalk at Hawkes Avenue and Georgia Street, with three deep cuts in his head, John Lawson, fireman, address unknown, was found last evening.

The police are searching for a man named Murphy, said to be a longshoreman, with whom Lawson said he had spent the earlier part of the evening.

WORLD IS INTERESTED

London, May 25.—Not since the world waited for months in 1912 for news from the ill-fated South Pole expedition led by Robert F. Scott has the world's interest in this country as high as that of the Amundsen-Ellsworth seaplane expedition, now overdue at Spitzbergen. Throughout Continental Europe also Amundsen's plight is the one absorbing topic of interest and anxiety. Newspapers give the greatest prominence to dispatches from Spitzbergen as news of the expedition's progress.

Other explorers and of Arctic experts as to what might have happened after the party hopped off for the North Pole.

AIRSHIP PROPOSAL

Reports from the United States that the United States may dirigible airship Shenandoah or Los Angeles might be pressing into service to search for the explorers have aroused the keenest interest.

So far it is the general opinion there is no immediate cause for anxiety. Many Norwegian, other Scandinavian and British authorities say it is probable the party reached the Pole, and that Amundsen's return is awaiting favorable weather conditions before attempting to return.

LAND THEORY

Sir John Scott Kellie, for many years secretary of the Royal Geographical Society and recognized as an authority on matters relating to the Arctic, told the Associated Press to-day that Amundsen's expedition had descended to make a thorough investigation.

Sir John expressed the opinion that such an attempt would be extremely hazardous, but in view of Amundsen's long record of Arctic experience declared that if any explorer could land at the Pole and return safely, that man was Amundsen.

In connection with the reports of proposed rescue flights by United States Navy dirigible airships, Sir John said that he had no doubt that the expedition would be successful.

NORTH POLE FLIGHT

States dirigible, the opinion was expressed in scientific circles that should there be no news of Amundsen within a few days, the expedition would be of the greatest value.

MUCH OPEN WATER

It was pointed out that if Amundsen and his party should be forced to attempt to travel afoot on a return trip from the North Pole at this season they would be faced by conditions of stretches of open water and floating drift ice and would have the greatest difficulty in reaching Greenland, which is the nearest land. A dirigible, unhindered by conditions of surface ice or water, could cover large areas of territory and easily locate the foot-travelers at a long distance away. It was believed by scientists here.

NO ALASKA PLAN

New York, May 25.—Capt. Amundsen had no intention of returning from his North Pole expedition by way of Alaska. This statement was made to-day by Loring Pickering, general manager of the North American Newspaper Alliance, who gave out a cable he had received May 4 from Amundsen bearing on this point.

Mr. Pickering issued the statement because it had been published that the expedition was to land in the Arctic region in an effort to reach Point Barrow. The cable read as follows:

"Despite rumors, under no circumstances do we contemplate continuing our flight to Alaska."

HANSEN'S OPINION

Copenhagen, May 25.—The Danish naval captain, Godfred Hansen, commander of Amundsen and second in command of his 1929 Arctic expedition on the sloop Gjøa, to-day expressed the opinion that Amundsen's chances of success depended entirely upon weather conditions and his gasoline supply. He said that undoubtedly the most favorable time for the flight, but even with the best of light, he believed the expedition would have very little gasoline surplus.

Should Amundsen be obliged to land near the North Pole, Captain Hansen said he would probably attempt to proceed to land Columbia, on Grinnell Land, northwest of Greenland, and in that event would have to remain there for a year, because the ice is so thick and the climate so severe.

MAJOR EXPLAINS COUNCIL VIEW ON WATER SALE

Exact Cost is Basis of Increased Charge to Saanich

"This City Council desires to do everything in our power to help the fruit-growers of the peninsula and the people of Saanich, but it would be quite unfair for us to continue selling water to the municipality at less than the cost to our own citizens," said Mayor Pendry in explanation of the attitude of the City Council towards the sale of water to Saanich at increased prices.

The Mayor could see no reason for the suggestion by Reeve Macneil that the water controversy be put at a hearing upon the attitude of the City Council in regard to the price of water.

"The Council is dealing with the water situation alone, and doing so upon a strictly business basis. I see no reason why the City Council should have been expected to hold consultations with the Saanich Council as to the price we should ask for water."

All we had to do was ascertain the exact cost to the city. This we did, and the exact cost in all we are asking Saanich to pay for the unlimited service we are giving, a service precisely the same as we render our own citizens, who have invested so much money in the system."

REPORT UNFOUNDED

Copenhagen, May 25.—There is no confirmation here of the report printed in London by The Daily Mail that Captain Roald Amundsen had returned yesterday morning to his Polar flight.

EX-COUNCILLOR IN MOTOR COLLISION ON SUNDAY MORNING

Ex-Councillor Francis Simpson and his family were in a motor car, when he was struck by a Ford coupe from Victoria driven by F. H. Rust, who had his mother as passenger. The front gear of both cars was wrecked in the collision, which took place on the water side of the road.

Constable Cawsey of the Saanich police was called to the scene of the accident.

BISHOP O'DONNELL REVIEWS SOCIETY

Procession of Men and Boys to St. Ann's Academy Yesterday

An impressive ceremony took place yesterday afternoon which was quite unique in the annals of the Catholic Diocese of Victoria, when for the first time several hundreds of men and boys, members of the Holy Name Society from St. Ann's Cathedral parish, Esquimalt, Victoria West and the Willows, marched in solemn procession from the Bishop's House in View Street to the Holy Name Academy, where they were reviewed and addressed by His Lordship, Bishop O'Donnell, who also imparted the Pontifical Benediction. The Holy Name Society is of very early origin, having been established as long ago as 1874 by Pope Gregory X, with the object of increasing love and respect for the Holy Name of God, Faith in the Divinity of Christ, and the suppressing of profane and obscene language.

SPEEDING CYCLISTS CRASH IN DISASTER

Peddling with every ounce of energy, Jack McPhee and Beverley Peden made first and second place respectively in the bicycle race on Saturday afternoon, and as they crossed the finishing line, unable to slacken their speed, rushed headlong into a motor car, driven by an uncle of one of the boys. There was only half a wheel's difference between the two at the end of the race. The two young men are progressing satisfactorily. They were rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital after the crash, but neither one of them was seriously hurt. McPhee lost consciousness for some little time after the accident, but Peden sustained severe cuts about the head and face.

teria until the carnival closes with the carnival revel on Dominion Day evening. By advancing the street races to the commencement of the celebrations, great crowds expect to accompany the score of floats representing other cities will be a great fillic to business.

A BUSINESS FAIR

Since the first inception of the idea for a June Carnival, to mark the opening of the Crystal Garden, the executive committee has stressed the fact that the celebration is primarily for the entertainment of the residents of the city. Proponents of advancement of the street parade of floats to the commencement of the festival point out that such a course will be of great commercial benefit to the storekeepers of the city.

TWO PROPOSALS

At present the advocates of advancing the carnival parade to a commencement function are divided into two groups.

One party, headed by Mayor Pendry, favors to leave the general carnival dates as arranged.

Another party, headed by the Rev. Father Silver, favors opening the carnival on Dominion Day, with the parade, and holding the celebrations in the course of the following days, this proposal being in effect, a deferment of the whole programme for a few days.

ALASKA OPINION

Nome, Alaska, May 24.—Although Amundsen had indicated that he intended to visit Alaska some time this year, it is unlikely he will attempt to return from his North Pole expedition by way of Alaska at this time, in the opinion of soundroughs well acquainted with the explorer and with ice conditions in the North.

This is the ice-breakup season, it is pointed out. Therefore, soundroughs believe Amundsen would not attempt to come to the Alaska coast until the sea ice is gone or the rivers clear of ice. Amundsen has not inquired about weather or ice conditions in the region this season, it is asserted.

brave note of color against the green of the turf and the trees. This formed the nucleus of a crowd which gradually swelled until by the hour of the service at 10 o'clock several thousand had gathered, exclusive of the army of children.

At the close of his address the Bishop, assisted by the clergy with Rev. Father Silver as master of ceremonies, carried out a solemn procession of the Holy Name of God, which was requested to the altar in the open air and benediction was sung by the assembled people under the direction of Mr. F. IS AMUNDSEN SAFE?

ALL THE WORLD IS anxiously waiting for news of the Amundsen expedition. It is hoping that its leader and his associates have gained their objective and are now merely hindered on their return to civilization by temporary adverse climatic conditions. Although the merit in risking valuable lives in scientific research in the two extremes of the globe is a debatable point, especially in view of the fact that there is much of the practical in which both courage and intelligence might be more profitably employed, the one outstanding impression which his admirers all over the world will have gained already is Amundsen's modesty in achievement in comparison with one or two other much less successful polar explorers whose names are not difficult to recall.

No finer tribute to Roald Amundsen could have been paid than that which the late Captain Scott and others of that memorable expedition to the South Pole paid to him in their respective diaries. All too few men of his stamp are left to the world. Should they run the risk which he is running in an effort to discover conditions the knowledge of which will be of practical value to a very few people—conditions which will not for many years have any bearing upon the course of human life now embraced by what we choose to call our modern civilization?

Meanwhile the name of Amundsen is on many lips. Millions who have but a faint conception of what he is doing will look for news of his safety because they know he has gone to do battle against enormous odds. That he has chosen the arduous path for his use is scarcely in their minds. Speculation as to its capacity under Arctic conditions gives second place to speculation upon human endurance.

POISON GAS

GERMANY HAS ANNOUNCED that she is ready to participate in any international conference agreement for the complete suppression of the use of chemical and poison gas warfare. This is one of the most important declarations to be made to the gathering which is now debating the question of traffic in arms at Geneva. It means that the country which introduced this diabolical method of slaughter on the Western front early in 1915—and, if the truth were known, is still in advance of other nations in this particular department—is ready to take the lead in its elimination.

There is no reason why Germany's sincerity should be doubted in connection with this proposal. Militarism and Hohenzollernism may be dying but slowly in some quarters; but it should be remembered that the division of votes at the recent presidential election was about even. Sufficient indication may be gathered from this upon which to base the hope that the republic, the democratic ideals, for which its constitution stands, will be just as safe under the presidency of von Hindenburg as it would be under Dr. Marx. Any move to undermine it would be promptly followed by an insurrection which would rend the economic life of the country in every sense. And, if anything, republican Germany, by reason of the ground which has to be regained, is demonstrating a keener business sense than monarchical Germany did. This would seem sufficient to assure the genuineness of the proposal submitted to Geneva to-day.

OCEAN RATES

MR. MEIGHEN AND HIS followers seem to have exhausted such arguments as they considered they had against the King Government's proposal to influence the downward revision of ocean freight rates. They are now consuming a good deal of space and energy in an attempt to prove that Mr. Preston, as not the proper man to make a report on the operations of the North Atlantic Conference and that in any case the few dollars which he was paid out of public funds was money virtually thrown away.

The people are not taken in by arguments which are refuted by the very action which the shipping companies have themselves taken. If the information supplied to the Government in Mr. Preston's report was incorrect, if the whole subsidy proposal is economically unsound in this instance and doomed to failure from the start, as opponents of the scheme have told us more than once, how comes it that such an array of shipping magnates left their offices in London and came to Ottawa to protect the privilege which has been theirs so long?

What have the Government's critics to say regarding the statement of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, in a memorandum filed on Wednesday, that rates ranging up to 566 per cent. higher than in 1914 are now charged by Conference lines? Surely neither Conservative newspaper nor Conservative politician will say the C.M.A. does not know what it is talking about when it refers to the rates its members have to pay for shipping on the Atlantic ocean.

MORE "EASY MONEY"

AS LONG AS HE IS guilty of nothing more than an ordinary amount of human weakness, and has come by his wealth honestly, the sympathy of the general public usually goes out to the man who has been cheated out of his own by confidence men. The case of a visitor from Britain who parted with $50,000 to men who represented themselves as connected with an important brokerage concern last week is another glaring instance of the manner in which the prospect of "easy money" retains all its old appeal. The procedure employed is as old as the hills. It is the "Spanish Prisoner" close up without the portmanteau. But the remarkable thing about the incident is the fact that the victim, since he was able to cable home for the money and get it at once, was apparently a shrewd man of business whose tour of the world may well be the rounding off of a career of commercial success. No doubt by this time he is saying nasty things about himself—and the gentlemen who relieved him. If he was, as it looks as if he was, a man of otherwise mature judgment, he will say little about it when he gets back to his associates in Britain. Should he be otherwise, he may resort to the newspapers and tell his compatriots what a wicked place Canada is as soon as it sees British capital. This does not go, of course, and he would only have to recall the famous cheques of "D. S. Windle"—which three London banks cashed in less than an hour for very large sums—to remember that "mugs" and swindlers know no barriers.

SHOULD GO THROUGH THE PUBLIC WILL WELCOME the announcement that the Minister of Justice will move a resolution in the House of Commons at Ottawa which will prohibit private importation of liquor into those provinces having government control legislation.

When this legislation has reached the Senate—for the third time—it should be approved without quibble. The upper chamber, with its Conservative majority, must realize that its rejection on two previous occasions has merely lengthened the life of the bootlegger in this Province. It has also made it possible for people who have no respect for the law of this or any other country to conduct a business which has more than once produced something approaching a delicate international situation.

With the question of private importation is also linked the activity of the export warehouse. While the subject is under discussion at Ottawa it is to be hoped that some suitable action will be taken to make more difficult illicit liquor distribution in the restricted area of the Province.

THAT MARKETING SUBSIDY ONCE AGAIN HAS THE voice of agriculture been raised in Britain against the proposal of the British Government to allocate £1,000,000 annually to assist in the marketing of Empire produce in the United Kingdom.

Not all of the landowners and agriculturists in the Old Country are Conservatives; but none better than the Prime Minister knows how much he and his followers in the House of Commons depend upon their support in numerous ways. And these are the great advocates of Empire solidarity, the exponents of protection, but when the overseas members of the family are offered some form of practical assistance in demonstration of so-called imperialism, economics throw a stimulant out of the window of the Empire warehouse.

All of which is tribute to Mr. Mackenzie King's wisdom in asking the last Imperial Conference for nothing which in any way might conflict with Britain's domestic policy. Be it remembered that the Imperial Preferences were offered and the marketing proposal is to make up for their rejection.

DR. FRANK CRANE
On Teachers' Salaries

WE do not pay teachers of our children enough. There is no getting away from this economic truth that we get what we pay for, and we get only that. In the long run the level of any profession is about even with its remuneration. "When we buy teaching service, to a large extent we buy our children's outlook on life," says a writer. "We live for our children. The whole house is conducted for them. And no business could look on life as persons who are properly trained to give it."

The teacher stands in the place of the parents. He should be one who has read the best books and magazines and who has the widest outlook on life. Selecting an inferior quality of people to teach our children results eventually in inferior children. A teacher should be the best sort of person in the world, so that out of his largeness the child may be fed. No stream rises higher than its source, and no education is going to do for our children what it ought unless it comes from persons who are properly trained to give it. Training teachers costs money. Attracting the best minds to the teaching profession costs money. Teachers ought to lead cultured lives with plenty of leisure, and that costs money. The teacher must maintain a standard of living which permits him to live in comfortable ease, so that he can bring to the classroom the necessary vitality. And that costs money.

We have done much toward improving the quality of the teaching in the United States, but the problem is so vital and large that we have not yet scratched the surface. The teacher should be paid enough to make him an important member of the community. He should be paid enough to insure the respect of the community. Money does not mean everything and there are some things that cannot be bought for money, but at the same time money means something and in the long run it is the basis for those finer qualities which we desire in those who train our children.

Miss Margaret M. Alltucker in the Journal of the National Education Association says that we want teachers of superior ability, trained, cultured and traveled, with a broad outlook and understanding of life, so that they may interpret life correctly to our boys and girls. It is doubtful if we can secure such teachers on the salaries that we now pay.

Most of the vital problems in the future of the nation are to be determined in the classroom and we need the best of experts to preside there.

QUITE ALL RIGHT

To the Editor:—After viewing the signs from all angles erected on the corner of Government and Belleville Streets by the Veterans' Sightseeing Co., I am not surprised to find that the signs are quite all right. The signs are not only interesting and reasonably priced, but they are also very artistic. The signs are not only interesting and reasonably priced, but they are also very artistic.

On one side is a plain black and white, ordinary blocked letter affair, which tells the name of the concern and its business; while the other sign is very artistic, really well painted and descriptive of certain routes that the tourists will find interesting and reasonably priced. If the signs were of a blinding color or if they were of the "hold up" type it would be different, but these are practical, straightforward, business-like signs that advertise the visiting public how the Veterans' Sightseeing Co. is prepared to serve them. It seems inconsistent with our efforts to attract new business to this city, this attempt to restrict decent firms to a decent business in a legitimate way. The Veterans' Company, I observed, have painted the corner a whole lot. They have painted the corner a whole lot. They have painted the corner a whole lot. They have painted the corner a whole lot.

Telephone Affairs. To the Editor:—The recent publicity campaign by the B.C. Telephone Co., as evidenced in the press during the last few days, is not only amusing but pathetic, and should inspire the general public with sympathy for such a kindly, well-meaning and considerate organization who find themselves in a very unpleasant situation.

Why these startling headlines announcing "Shocking of Rates" and "Twenty Per Cent. Reductions" and "The solution of these mysteries lies in the fact that a few individuals with a strong desire for justice and fair play dared to challenge the company's right to charge a perfectly satisfactory telephone service, which they had enjoyed for periods varying from five to twenty years, to one in which to obtain the same service would trouble and quadruple their monthly bills.

Why, after undertaking to bring in this change without having first obtained the authority of the Board of Railway Commissioners, they directly flaunting the jurisdiction of that body, and then to refuse to fully conform with their ruling, do they not realize that such actions will not lead to promote a feeling of consideration on their behalf at the forthcoming hearing of the Point Grey and other cases?

As to the president's ideal of arranging rates to satisfy the minimum use is concerned, I would say, "and a very laudable ideal, too," and very satisfactory to the company's shareholders. I know several cases of subscribers who use their telephone once or perhaps less a day, and others who have the instrument in the house solely in case of emergency in calling medical or other aid.

Excellent clients for the company without doubt. Solid money flowing in every month with the minimum of service given.

A few hundred of such clients would make any organization wealthy in a short time. —But why make this type of subscriber the object of their consideration rather than those who would be glad to fill their niche in the life of the community (I do not refer to Gordon Head) and make rational use of the telephone and look upon it as a utility rather than an article of veneration, like the family portrait, to be hung on the wall and looked at but seldom touched?

In concluding, I advise the public to read these heartrending appeals to their sympathy in the light in which they are intended and "cum grano salis."

F. O. ALDOUS
Hon. Sec. Cadboro Bay Telephone Committee,
May 25, 1925.

THE HALF HOLIDAY

To the Editor:—For the future benefit of our city it seems to me necessary that we must all get shoulder to shoulder behind the Mayor and Council, and not leave the work to any one willing horse, as it only by co-operation that great cities are built.

At the last civic election we were told about the great benefit of the tourist trade and the vast numbers that would be traveling this summer, and that Victoria was bound to get her quota, and considering the season has hardly started this forecast seems most reasonable.

Now, sir, it seems to me that if we are to receive the full benefit of this very important business, and thereby get a fair return for the money expended in advertising the great advantages of our city, the first thing to be done is to have our city always business-like and attractive as the first impression of a place is its principal asset.

The C.P.R. must surely have some idea of the possible future of our city to warrant its expenditure at this point in building a dock and placing two new steamers on the Victoria-Seattle and Victoria-Vancouver routes, besides the new Crystal Gardens, all of which will be a great attraction for the traveling public.

Without a doubt the first thing to be considered is the shopping convenience for the visitors, and this should be done at once. A tourist city cannot have any early closing day and retain its attraction. There should be very little difficulty in this matter, as arrangements between employer and employee could be attained whereby everyone could have a half holiday every week, particularly on the Cross-word Puzzle 2221.

The necessity for this change to be made forthwith was most obvious when the Kathleen arrived from Seattle with several hundred passengers all ready and eager to avail themselves of the opportunity of purchasing several different kinds of merchandise, especially wearing apparel, and were disappointed to see all our stores closed. Now if the Chamber of Commerce get busy at once it might be possible to present to the Premier a petition strong enough for him to arrange to have this obstacle removed and allow Victoria, and any other city in a similar position to be freed from this most regrettable piece of legislation. Next Wednesday all stores will remain open owing to Monday being a holiday, and I trust that the Chamber will see that it is possible to have all stores remain open on Wednesday at least during the summer months. TIMES CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

Cross-word Puzzle 2222

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSS-WORD PUZZLE
Every number in the form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal. If above it, the word is vertical. The numbers may of course begin both as a horizontal and a vertical. The definitions for the correct words to fill the form are found below. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and put it in its proper place on the form, one letter for each white square. This will help you to find the words linking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly it should read both horizontally and vertically with words corresponding to the definitions. The correct solution of today's puzzle will be printed in the next issue of The Times.

Artificial Light

Article 1

Ordinary light is made up of a numerous variety of rays. When passed through a prism light splits up into its individual rays, when this is done we get what is called the spectrum. All light rays are not visible. The visible spectrum is made up of the red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo and violet. The spectrum is divided into three segments, the center and smaller segment being the visible, at either end of the visible portion there is an invisible segment. The rays at the red end of the visible segment are the longest and those at the violet end are the shortest. Beyond the red end of the visible portion, extending into the invisible portion, the rays become progressively longer, the farther they are from the red rays. In this region are found the wireless waves. The rays in this region are known as the infra red rays. At the other end, beyond the visible violet, we get another invisible section. The rays in this section become progressively shorter as they get farther from the red rays. In this region are found the ultra violet rays. Beyond the ultra violet we get still farther into a region with still shorter wave lengths, until we reach the shortest known, viz., X-rays and radium. The different groups of rays have different properties, and it is on account of these properties that some rays are of use in the treatment of diseased conditions. AESCULAPUS.

VICTORIA MAN MADE SUPERINTENDENT OF
ONTARIO AIR PATROL

The many friends of Major Cecil J. Clayton, D.F.C., will be interested to learn that he has recently been appointed superintendent of the Eastern division of the Ontario Air Service (forestry patrol), with headquarters at Sudbury. Major Clayton is a former Victorian, having received his early education at the "Boys' Central" and Victoria High Schools, and prior to his enlistment in the Air Force, he was employed in the circulation department of The Colonist. On his return to Canada he pursued his studies in the Royal College of Dental Surgeons, graduating from that institution in June, 1924. The ceremony was coupled with a formal sunrise flag raising, and took place at 9 o'clock. Alderman William Marchant, chairman of the city council committee in charge of the Old Men's Home, delivered an appropriate address.

Now!
Whiten Cloudy Teeth

Under that film on your teeth (run your tongue across your teeth and you can feel it) are the clean, glistening teeth you envy. Combat it this way—see what pretty teeth you have.

IN the United States to-day, it is estimated that over half a million people a day are cleaning their teeth in a new way. These are people who used to have dull and dingy teeth. That is why you see gleaming teeth wherever your eyes turn. Now leading dentists tell how to clear up dingy teeth. A method that supplants old type dentifrices—combs, without harsh grit, the stubborn film that covers teeth and makes them ugly. Run your tongue across your teeth. You will feel that film. Under it are the prettier, whiter teeth you envy in others. This offers you free a 10-day tube of the way authoritatively advise combating it. Simply mail the coupon.

The great enemy of teeth. Film is the great enemy of tooth beauty. And a chief cause, according to world's dental authorities, of most tooth troubles. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. Germs by the millions breed in it. They, with tartar, are the common cause of pyorrhea. You can't have prettier, whiter teeth; you can't have healthier teeth unless you combat that film. Obtain Pepsodent now. Don't expect the same results from old type dentifrices. Start beautifying your teeth to-day. Mail the coupons.

Stewart Consolidated Gold Mines Limited

VICTORIA, B.C.

The predicted stampede into the Cassiar is now on—Prospectors, miners, mining magnates and ordinary citizens are on the trek. The lure of gold intrigues them. Hundreds of tons weight in machinery is being rushed into the country.

Victoria, as becomes it, keeps calm and self-possessed. Its placid surface is not ruffled by this boisterous effort. Just calm and undisturbed! Times are somewhat quiet. Never mind—to-morrow they may be better.—Man What ails our glided youth?

Shades of our grandfathers! Has the lure of adventure, gold, wealth, lost its attraction? What ails our glided youth?

There is gold in Cassiar and hundreds of miles North of it and the effort that is being made will continue until success crowns it. Thousands will lose, but some will win out. Organized effort will always win out against spasmodic attempts by individuals. This Company is fully equipped to deal with the situation. It will secure its share of values. Consider this.

To-day's Mining Markets

Local and other Canadian mining markets were closed to-day.

Notwithstanding the obvious fact that the mining shares markets are for the moment in the doldrums, the general situation continues to show progressive improvement, while there is also sound basis for optimism in respect of progress in constructive mine development and exploration throughout the Portland Canal district. Federal Securities are in their market statement. The break-up period is about at an end and within another fortnight conditions should lend themselves with marked facility to the transportation of supplies and machinery to the many properties that are coming into prominence, as well as to the shipment of ores to smelting points. By and large, the situation from this baseline is exceedingly promising, we think.
The pending Dunsmuir deal appears to be the major restraining influence for the moment in the share markets. For our part, we think there is entirely too much over-optimism given to the hope that a deal will be consummated. We believe, the next thing to a certainty, although it is but natural that prospective buyers should be inclined to make the best possible terms for themselves. There may even be a slight price revision, although this is problematical. It is said on the part of authority that there are no less than three prospective buyers in addition to the group now negotiating for control of the company.

It seems to us that far greater importance attaches to the fact that there are going to be many properties opened up during the season and that the prospect of over-optimism given to the hope that a deal will be consummated. We believe, the next thing to a certainty, although it is but natural that prospective buyers should be inclined to make the best possible terms for themselves. There may even be a slight price revision, although this is problematical. It is said on the part of authority that there are no less than three prospective buyers in addition to the group now negotiating for control of the company.

WEATHER RULES GRAIN MARKETS

Chicago, May 25.—The Chicago Tribune to-day says:
Weather and crop conditions, especially the latter, are dominant factors in the world's wheat situation.
The wheat trade is bullish, not only in North America but abroad, owing to the uncertainty of future supplies and their close adjustment to the demand.
Weather conditions in Northwest and Southwest have been most favorable, changing from low temperatures down to 16 above in parts of the Northwest to around 100 within a week or ten days.
Wheat traders are mostly bullish on crop conditions.
Shorts in corn are nervous and are covering, finding little pressure from sellers.

FARMERS' SILENCE PROSPERITY DOUBTS

New York, May 25.—Persons who are doubtful of prosperity in the great grain belts in the Middle West might profitably consider the amazing increase in the purchase of tractors exclusively for the last six months of the calendar year, which ends in November, sales totaled 363 per cent. over same period last year, and 105 per cent. over full year for 1924. These are comforting figures to bear in mind when discussing power of the agricultural districts shown by the manufacturers of farm implements generally.

Sir E. Holderness Suffers Defeat at Hands of Argentine Player

Lost by One up; First American to Tee Off Beaten by Young Scotsman

Westward Ho, Eng., May 25.—Sir Ernest Holderness, holder of the British amateur golf title, was eliminated to-day from the championship in the first round of play by J. I. Cruickshanks, of the St. Andrew's Club, of Buenos Ayres, who beat the champion by one hole.

V. Cochran, of the Onwentsia Club of Chicago, was eliminated from the British amateur golf championship tournament in the first round. Cochran, the first of the Americans to get started in the round, went down before a nineteen-year-old Scotsman, Archibald Donald Duncan Mathieson, who last year won the British boys' championship.

Westward Ho, England, May 25.—England's greatest golfers, some of the Scottish stars and a few foreign players, have gathered at the inns and hotels here and in the nearby villages of North Devon for the amateur championship which opened this morning.

There will be only 151 participants, however, the smallest number since 1912.

As a preliminary to the championship, the annual international match of teams representing England and Scotland was played yesterday. The English team came away victorious, the Scottish side being weaker than usual.

HOLDERNESSE LOST AGAIN

Sir Ernest Holderness, the title-holder, and one of the favorites for the championship, was beaten four up and two to play by Robert Harris, of Acton, England. Both Cyril Tolley and Roger Wethered had to go to the home-hole to defeat Torrance and Murray, respectively. Storey, of England, also lost to the Scotsman, T. H. Osgood, but a sufficient number of lesser known Southerners won enough points to give the victory to England.

For the first time since the war a German player will take part in the championship. He is Hans Samke, of Hamburg, and will face Cyril Tolley. There are also entries from France and Argentina, and the far away British colonies of Malay, Ceylon and New Zealand.

On Fifth Green in Two is Fine Record of Dr. F. Bryant

On the fifth green at Colwood in two. It has been done two or three times. Five hundred and twenty-five yards from tee to green, and plenty of "trouble" in waiting! But Dr. F. M. Bryant saw to "trouble" yesterday. A "screaming" drive and a "pip" of a second—just on!

"Frank" was playing with ex-captain "Jim" Wood, "Cliff" Denham, and G. Yale Simpson. All gasped as they saw the little pip part the ozone and come to rest with an affidavit staying from the makers' marking. There was no argument. It was there.

Interviewed after his round, Dr. Bryant made light of the matter, recording the thrill on the tablet of his golfing memory, from which he will be able to draw encouragement as the years roll by. But they were two great shots.

"CONFESSIONS OF A QUEEN" IS DOMINION OFFERING ON EXCELLENT BILL THIS WEEK

Lewis Stone, Styled the Screen's Most Popular Lover, Climbed Steadily From Minor Stage Roles

The stage must have been indicated for Lewis Stone from the very beginning, for even during the time he attended school in Worcester, Massachusetts, where he was born, he played in the school theatricals, and during the time he attended the Bernard Military Academy in New York City he headed the list in dramatic classes.

As soon as he graduated from the latter school he did go upon the stage. On Broadway, at that. Of course, he was a super for some time, and then a great opportunity came for him in "The Misleading Lady." Then followed a series of well-known successes.

It was while he was fulfilling a summer stock engagement in Los Angeles that the movies captured him.

He is one of the screen's most popular lovers and has played leading roles in some hundred photoplays, among which are: "The Prisoner of Zenda," "Trifling Women," "Scaramouche," "The Dangerous Age," "The Child Thou Gavest Me," "The World's Applause," "You Can't Fool Your Wife," "Why Men Leave Home," and "Cheaper to Marry." He is featured in Victor Seastrom's production of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, "Confessions of a Queen," which plays at the Dominion Theatre with Alice Terry and John Bowers.

NEW ALPHABET

New York, May 25.—Declaring the present English alphabet is inadequate because it has only twenty-six letters, whereas there are forty-eight fundamental sounds in English, Dr. Frank H. Vizetelly, managing editor of the New Standard Dictionary, has launched a movement for a revised alphabet. In an address here he advocated a new alphabet, and also de-

POLA NEGRI—"THE CHARMER"

Opera Singer Will Appear at Dominion

Miss Irma Tice, Formerly of Brandon Opera Company,
To Sing Here

An added attraction of note is to be presented at the Dominion all this week: Miss Irma Tice, popular favorite of several opera companies, is to appear every afternoon and evening in conjunction with the regular picture showing.

Miss Tice became a favorite when she played the leading role in the Bohemian Girl presented by the Brandon Opera Company on the Pacific coast last season. Her voice is a sweeping soprano of remarkable range and volume, and her singing is regarded by critics as unusually accurate. Miss Tice's manner gives her a personality as a solo artist.

Among the many roles Miss Tice has successfully handled are: Dame Durken in "Robin Hood," Katisha in "The Mikado," and the Gypsy Queen in "The Bohemian Girl." She will be heard singing "Waltz Song" from "Chocolate Soldier" and other popular numbers at the Dominion this week.

'Anna Christie' Bids For Film Honors as Playhouse Offering

Frank Morton Company Ready For Fun in "Follies of
"Frisco"

The remarkable tribute paid to Eugene O'Neill's stage play "Anna Christie" when it was produced in New York, on the road in this country and in London carry positive proof of the tremendous audience appeal of this drama which has been translated with fidelity to the foot-lights original by Thomas H. Ince. The picture, a First National release, will be shown at the Playhouse Theatre this week.

According to critics who have witnessed pre-viewings of the new production, the picture will outstrip in popularity the stage drama which was received both on Broadway and in London as one of the greatest films in years.

As the stage attraction, Frank Morton and company offer, for the first time here, "The Follies of Frisco," a breezy musical comedy replete with melody.

ADVANCE PROGRAMME OF CRYSTAL GARDEN CARNIVAL

Wide Array of Amusements Being Organized to Celebrate
Opening of Unique Centre; Programme Concludes With Carnival Revel on Dominion Day.

Carnival Manager Winkle has issued the following provisional programme for the Crystal Garden Carnival, June 26 to July 1.

Opening event, Coronation of the Carnival Queen, at the Parliament Buildings at 8.30 p.m., on Friday, at the conclusion of which the Royal Procession will move across to the opening ball at the Crystal Garden organized by the four service clubs of the City of Victoria—Rotary, Kiwanis, Gyro and Kumtiks. A joint committee, under the chairmanship of Frank Blashfield, has the Carnival ball under way and indicate that it will be the stellar attraction of it's kind that has ever been put on in the City of Victoria.

SATURDAY PROGRAMME

Saturday morning will be taken up chiefly with school children's swimming events. In the afternoon Canadian championship aquatic sports will be held in the Crystal Garden Pool, with a military and naval Gymkhana at the Willows Park.

Saturday afternoon will also feature the Carnival Queen's reception at the Empress Ballroom; this will take the form of a Court Levee, when the Carnival Queen will be "at home" and receive the May Queens of the surrounding cities. This event will be an innovation in carnival undertakings, and, in the hands of a most capable committee, will be one of the most brilliant of the whole carnival programme.

PAGEANT SATURDAY NIGHT

On Saturday evening the spectacular Pageant, "The Return of Richard Coeur de Lion," will be produced by Major Taylor in the Victoria Arena with 300 artists. This Pageant will be original in every sense of the word, never having been produced before. It is looked upon by the committee as one of the major attractions of the festival. Everyone who has read "Ivanhoe," by Sir Walter Scott, will be intensely interested in the picture production. Through inter-bright relief in a place of color against the interior of the huge building, animate—in intense action—both humor and tragedy, this spectacle should draw immense crowds of people.

The second programme of championship aquatic sports will take place at the Crystal Garden Pool, and for further entertainment a championship boxing competition will be featured to fill this evening's entertainment.

SUNDAY CONCERTS

On Sunday afternoon a grand Sacred Concert will be held at the Willows Arena, where a massed choir under Professor Hodgson will render Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise," accompanied by a local orchestra of eighty pieces. Sunday evening a Sacred Band Concert will be provided at the Parliament Square or Beacon Hill, together with open air Divine Service.

ROSE SHOW OPENS

On Monday morning a programme of school children's aquatic sports will be provided at the Crystal Garden Pool. In the afternoon the opening of the Oak Bay Rose Club display in the Reception Hall of the Crystal Garden. Also on Monday afternoon will be amateur firemen's contests, teams entering from every city of Vancouver Island. In the evening a second production of the Pageant at the Arena. The third programme of championship swimming events in the Crystal Garden Pool with street dancing and street entertainments.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL

Tuesday afternoon, opening of the strawberry festival. In the evening a third production of the Pageant at the Willows and Venetian Night, at the Gorge.

"The Hill Billy" Is Story of Lone Wolf Mountaineers

Columbia Has Unusual Setting
For Story by Pickfords

A good many decades ago, according to legend, a lone wolf stalked to the summit of a peak in the mountain region of Kentucky, pointed his nose toward the sky, and stood silhouetted against the darkening clouds. His head lifted heavenward, the wolf sent forth his dismal cry. To the mountain folk of that isolated region, the howl of the beast came as an ill omen.

That is the reason the valley sprawled between the mountain ridges became known to the inhabitants as "Valley of the Wolf." That is the reason, also, why Jack Pickford, youthful screen star and independent producer, selected the "Valley of the Wolf" as the locale for his latest Allied Producers and Distributors Corporation release, "The Hill Billy," which comes to the Columbia Theatre to-day.

"The Hill Billy" is an original story of the Kentucky mountains and the young mountain folk of more than two decades ago, written by the young star himself, his celebrated sister, Mary Pickford, and Marion Jackson, the writer.

Lucille Rickson, sixteen-year-old star and Hollywood's youngest leading woman, plays the leading feminine role opposite Jack George Hill, who was associated with the famous director, D. W. Griffith, for a long time and with the late George Loane Tucker, who created "The Miracle Man," directed the picture.

Rail Men Will Meet in Detroit

Detroit, May 25.—The thirtieth convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen will open here June 1 and continue for about a month, with representatives of 232 autonomous lodges and a score or more of grand officers in attendance. The convention will represent approximately 115,000 members.

Body of Man Was Found Near Trail

Trail, B.C., May 25.—The body of an unknown man was found yesterday across the Columbia River from Trail, about a mile above East Trail, by boys who were looking for fish bait. There was nothing in the clothing to identify the body except two Cranbrook labels.

From the decomposed condition of the body, the man had evidently been dead from three to six months. There were no signs of violence.

RADIO CONTROL FOR MOVIE CAMERAS

Universal City, Cal., May 25.—Radio control, which has been used successfully in the operation of aeroplanes and battleships, has been applied to motion picture cameras.

Officials of a film corporation have perfected a radio device by which cameras may be placed at distant points and actuated by a transmitter. The invention is devised for use in photographing long landscape scenes showing battles and similar large spectacles, where cameras at varied positions must be used at the same time.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, May 25, 1900

The regatta that was to be staged at the Gorge was postponed on account of rain.

One of the finest parades that has been seen for several years in Victoria was staged yesterday. Great credit is given to the merchants, and the committee in charge.

Half of the 44th and 48th company of submarine miners will reach Victoria to-night to reinforce the garrison here.

The steamship Victoria of the N.P. fleet, arrived at Quarantine last evening direct from Kobe, Japan, and this afternoon will dock at the outer wharf.

POLA NEGRI IS DANCING GIRL FROM SEVILLE IN CAPITOL THEATRE STORY

Elaborate Paramount Production With Colorful Setting Serves as Dramatic Vehicle for Famous Screen Star.

"The Charmer," Pola Negri's newest starring production for Paramount, at the Capitol Theatre all this week, produced by Sidney Olcott from Henry Baerlein's novel, "Mariposa," deals with the career and love adventures of a beautiful Spanish peasant girl, who is discovered in a Seville dance hall by a prominent American theatrical producer. Her inimitable dancing and undeniable beauty appeal to the showman in him, and in spite of her lack of education and refinement, he makes her an offer to go to New York.

Billed as "The Charmer," her success is instantaneous. Two men meet and fall in love with her—Ralph Bayne, son of wealthy parents, and his chauffeur, Dan Murray. Wallace MacDonald, last seen in the Paramount picture, "New Love for Old," plays Bayne, and Robert Frazer, who appeared in support of Bebe Daniels in "Miss Bluebird," has the role of the chauffeur.

But Mariposa's butterfly nature will not permit her to tie herself down permanently, with the result that she flits from one love affair to another, until disaster threatens. All through the picture Bayne and his chauffeur try to outdo each other for the girl's affections. There are some big laugh scenes and real drama, too.

Others in the strong supporting cast of the production are Tricie Friganza, popular stage comedienne; Cesare Gravina, Gertrude Astor, Edwards Davis and Mathilda Brundage.

"The Charmer" promises to be Pola's best picture to date.

Take a tip?

Smokers don't like advice. Not even from their wives or from the old family doctor, who usually say: "Of course, you smoke too much."

So this is not about that. You're the boss on how much you smoke. But we do have a suggestion that we think you'll appreciate.

Between smokers try eating a few Life Savers. See how they freshen up your mouth and make the next smoke taste so much better.

DISCUSS QUESTIONS IN SASKATCHEWAN

Leaders of Parties Addressing People Prior to General Election June 2

Liberal Administration Appeals on Its Record; Few Three-cornered Contests

Regina, May 25.—With nomination day a few days off, official statements from the various parties indicate there will be sixty-one Liberals, forty-eight Progressives, twenty-five Conservatives and a few Independent and Labor candidates in the Saskatchewan provincial general election set for June 2. There will be few three-cornered contests to cut into the vote of any of the candidates.

There have been no official meetings between the leaders of the Progressive and Conservative organizations, according to reports, but Government spokesmen have charged that a tacit understanding exists between the two and that it will have to face practically the combined strength of the opposition at the polls. Melfort, Thunder Creek and Milestone are three constituencies in which the voters will be asked to choose between Liberal, Conservative and Progressive candidates. There has been a number of cases where the Conservative party has officially endorsed the progressive candidate in a constituency.

RECORD OF PARTY

Premier A. C. Dunning, in a manifesto issued when he announced the date of the election, declared it was the "earnest desire" of the Government that its record and policy should be fully discussed. He set forth the intention of the Government to develop an electrical power scheme to supply cheap power for the province and to press for completion of the Hudson Bay railway. The manifesto outlined the economic management of the Government of the province and reviewed the Government's activities along the lines of co-operative marketing, agricultural side, industrial development, education, transportation, labor legislation and other matters.

An official manifesto of the Provincial Progressive party, issued a day later, declared the Progressive Association would make the "first serious attempt" in Saskatchewan to secure a Senate reform and a settlement of the natural resources question. It stated the party's aim to secure a fixed term for the Legislature, a "fixed date" for elections and the adoption of the single transferable ballot. Charges were made of government extravagance.

In literature and in public utterances the Government has been charged with extravagant expenditure of public money. It has been charged that the Liberal party has controlled the province long enough and that it is time for a change.

The Liberal party has been in power since the province was created in 1905.

In combatting these assertions, Premier Dunning and other Liberal candidates declare changes have been going on in the party and that new blood has been continually introduced. It is pointed out that by redistribution at various times the number of members has been increased from twenty-five to sixty-three and that Premier Dunning with eight and one-half years' service in the Legislature holds second place among the Liberals in the House in length of service. Growth of the province and the increase in the cost of living are given as answers to the charge of Government extravagance. In the last, the fifth Legislature of the province, the Government had forty-eight members out of a total of sixty-three. The Legislature opened with seventeen members in the Opposition seats, but during its lifetime one member, W. H. McKinnon, Wadena, crossed the floor to take a seat on the Liberal side, and another, George Robertson, Wynyard, resigned to become secretary of the Saskatchewan wheat pool. His seat was filled by a Government supporter. When the Legislature dissolved, there were fifteen members on the combined Opposition benches. Of the Opposition, one member, R. J. Gordon, Souris, was elected as a Conservative, the other fourteen having announced themselves at the time of the opening as Independents. Four later declared allegiance to the Conservative banner.

LEADERS IN CONTEST

In addition to Premier Dunning, the two outstanding leaders in the campaign are Harris Turner, elected as an Independent for Saskatoon, City and nominated for that constituency in the present election; and Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, leader of the Conservatives.

Mr. Turner represented Saskatoon in the last Legislature and in 1924 was elected Opposition leader in the House. He was blinded while serving overseas with the Canadian forces in France, but despite this handicap has had a brilliant political career. He was first elected to the House in 1917 to represent the Saskatchewan forces in France. He was returned to the House from Saskatoon City in the 1921 election as an Independent and will run again under the same designation with the support of the Progressive party. He is a journalist by profession.

Dr. Anderson will carry the banner of the Conservative party in Saskatoon city, but during the campaign he has toured the province lending his support to nearly every constituency where the party has officially endorsed a candidate. He has advocated the overhauling of the civil service and the stabilizing of rural life.

Before being chosen Conservative leader he was prominent in educational circles, holding at various times important offices. He was school inspector of the Yorkton district and Director of Education amongst New Canadians.

Both Mr. Turner and Dr. Anderson were born in Ontario. Mr. Turner at Markdale and Dr. Anderson at Fairbanks.

ONE WOMAN CANDIDATE

The only woman candidate in the field is Mrs. Sarah Catherine Ramsland, Liberal member in the last Legislature for Pelly, who will contest the seat again.

She has had the honor of being the first woman member of the Legislative Assembly in Saskatchewan. She was first elected to the House in 1919 when she contested the seat vacated through the death of her husband. In the general election in 1921 she was returned.

Mrs. Ramsland is a native of Buffalo, Lake, Minn., and received her education at St. Cloud, Minn. Her maiden name was McEwen.

She has consistently supported the Liberal policy in the House and has been a champion of women's legislation.

KATHLEEN BRINGS EXCURSION HERE

Large Crowd of Vancouver People Aboard on Special Holiday Run.

Crowded with hundreds of mainland residents taking advantage of fine weather, a wonderful ship and a fair city's promise for a pleasant holiday, the Ss. Princess Kathleen left Vancouver for Victoria at 8:30 o'clock this morning. At present plans are that the ship will leave again for the mainland at 5 o'clock. It is thought that she carries almost 1,500 passengers.

Two steamships were on the night run from Vancouver to this port on Saturday night. Both brought large numbers of passengers. Large numbers of visitors are expected on the afternoon steamer from Seattle, the Princess Marguerite, as well as from the Vancouver ship for there will be the usual daily sailings from the mainland ports to-day, it is announced.

GRAIN LOADINGS SHOW DECREASE

Weekly Report Sets Season's Total at 116,562,000 Bushels

Winnipeg, May 25.—A total of 86,203 cars containing 116,562,000 bushels of grain have been loaded at points on the Canadian National Railways in Western Canada, according to the weekly grain figures issued to-day by Canadian National Railways. Due to the fact that farmers who still have grain on hand being all engaged in seeding operations, loadings at country points have shown a decided falling off during the last couple of weeks and the bulk of grain loaded is coming in from elevators, thus reducing the amount shown in storage. At midnight on May 21 only 2,451,000 bushels remained in storage as against over 20,000,000 on the same date last year. Loadings at Vancouver since the opening of the present grain year on August 1 have been 4,153 cars.

FERRIES BRINGING VISITING CROWDS

Tourist Travel Well Started and Cars Pour in From All Directions

"The Olympic and the Sol Duc are doing better than we anticipated on the first three days of the ferry service into this port from Port Angeles to-day," said E. E. Blackwood, agent for the Puget Sound Navigation Company here. "There are many tourists in Victoria to-day and the ferries are bringing in their cars from all directions."

Mr. Blackwood is highly elated at the success of the operations of the ferry boats this early in the season. Ordinarily the month of May is not very active so far as tourist travel is concerned, Mr. Blackwood stated this morning, but ferry boats are operating earlier this year than last, and the result has been that the visitors from other cities are coming here in large numbers already.

Do you realize that commencing May 17 you can leave Victoria at 3 p.m. on the new steamer Princess Marguerite, connect with the "Transcanada" from Vancouver at 8:30 p.m. and arrive in Banff 5:15 p.m. following day; Calgary 7:55 p.m. following day; Brandon noon, second day; Winnipeg 7:50 p.m. second day; Ft.
